

VEREIN ZUR FÖRDERUNG DER CHRISTLICHEN ARCHÄOLOGIE ÖSTERREICHS

hereby takes the liberty of soliciting new members.

The aim of the society is the promotion and dissemination of Christian archaeological research in Austria, for example through the annual "Mitteilungen zur Christlichen Archäologie" of some 100 to 120 pages with illustrations, some in colour, which are published by the Austrian Academy of Sciences and which each paid up member of the society receives free of charge. Each volume contains an English and an Italian article. Further publications and informative papers are planned together with works of research on Christian archaeology, excavations, lectures, conferences, guided tours and excursions both in Austria and abroad.

If you are interested, please complete the application for membership below and send it to:

Univ.-Prof. i. R. Dr. Renate Pillinger
